No One Can Sell Down Under Better Than TDU

Turtle Down Under

A Lot Can Happen Down South

There are so many reasons to visit South Pacific countries. Sandy, sun-kissed beaches, virgin island hideaways and immense natural beauty. Add to it a rich indigenous culture, geographic quirks, and a maritime climate and you have the perfect holiday package to recommend to your clients.

All you need now is the support of a travel partner, who has strong inroads into the local market. Your search can end with Turtle Down Under (TDU).

About TDU

TDU is a specialized, strategic business unit of GTX that has many years of experience as Destination Manager for Australia and New Zealand. With our strong network of travel and tour operators in the South Pacific region, we excel at co-ordinating international itineraries and offering end-to-end services - flight bookings, logistics, local transportation, accommodation, guides, and insider's access to unique experiences – with a 24X7 support for your customers.

What Differentiates TDU Service?

- We offer 24/7 support to travel agents
- Our turnaround time for FIT quotes is two hours during one working day
- We specialize in recommending pure Indian Vegetarian/ Jain/ Vegan Restaurants
- We can arrange 'Chef on Call' for groups from overseas
- We provide self-drive options within Australia and NZ
- We specialize in cruises within Australia and NZ
- We accept payment in local currencies

Local inbound tour and travel operators know their destination best. But they need access to a partner with global technology and marketing potential to haul their product off to the global market. TDU could be your partner in selling Australia and New Zealand as travel destinations to a discerning customer, who wants to experience a rich blend of ancient and modern cultures, decode the Aboriginal dreams, observe how the Maoris keep their rituals alive and dine with a New Zealander family. Team TDU works with experts who are passionate about their destination and committed to giving you an unforgettable holiday experience.
